She spent nine years in Derry as a Vice-Principal, which was foundational to her career, and four years in Hopkinton as a Principal. He invited her up to say a few words.

-Dr. Carrie Sindoni addressed Superintendent Michael Flynn, the School Board, and the Derry Community. She has a sense of pride and a feeling of being home returning to work for the Derry Cooperative School District. Her passion for leadership and her commitment to students, educators, and families were shaped in Derry. Working in Hopkinton as a Principal for four years helped her grow as an instructional leader and a systems thinker. With her heart still tied here in Derry, she is excited to bring those outside perspectives back to the community that started it all for her. Derry has always been a district that strives for excellence, and she is eager to contribute to this mission. Her focus will be to foster collective efficacy, the shared conviction among our educators that together we can overcome challenges and ensure that every student succeeds. By aligning our collective strengths and fostering a culture of mutual support, we will expand the possibilities for our schools and ensure a clear path to success for every student. She is excited to hit the ground running, listening to all stakeholders, and working alongside this dedicated team to build upon Derry's forward momentum.

Appointment Presentations:

-Mr. Fox from West Running Brook Intermediate School shared about the school-wide Artist and Resident, Josh Winer, who is working on a Mural Mosaic Project for the WRBIS entry way. The PTSA, staff, and students are all working together. Mr. Ryan, the art teacher, spoke about this project and how they are growing as a community. The creative process covers district goals of Growth/Connect, and is fully immersive, working on collaboration, self-control, empathy, and assertiveness. These are all part of CARES! Every student made an individual tile. Seven students shared what they are learning and the experiences they are having. They will be doing an unveiling and ribbon ceremony in May with food trucks!

-Chairman Thiele called for a 5-minute recess.

-Principal Reports:

-Principal Michelle Cremone updated about South Range Elementary School. They have had significant changes this year and are now falling into a routine. Trimester Two has just finished, and students are academically thriving, and teachers and staff continue to do outstanding work. They have a strong partnership with the PTA, who have put on their annual pancake breakfast with a Grinch visit. Student Council helped out with this event. They have many clubs and extracurricular activities, and a new recess club called Recess Rangers with 4th graders practicing their leadership roles, helping with Kindergarten recess with expectations on the playground. For assemblies, organized by Mr. Edwards, they have had the NED program that focused on resilience and bouncing back (tied into the CARES components), an author visit, and the Xploration STEM. She talked about building school community during their Morning Meeting and Morning Announcements, and the Minute to Win it challenge that they invited Superintendent Michael Flynn and Kathleen Holzman to compete against Principal Cremone and Project ME teacher Greg Day.

-Principal Mary Hill updated about East Derry Memorial Elementary School. Students are greeted each day by staff with music playing. They have Ellie, the therapy dog, who visits on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Many fun clubs are happening, including PALS, Lego, Math, Running, Ski, and Yoga, for which 341 students signed up! Their PTA is amazing with concerts, a Glow Dance, and author Karen Allard who talked about the writing process during Read Across America Week. They have monthly CARES assemblies, and to keep them more interesting and new this year, they had an OWL draft with 4 colored OWL teams, the Student Council is running these meetings. They have also had the NED Assembly, and Corey the Dribbler because of Grants planned my Mr. Mitch Edwards.

-Principal Melissa Lantz updated about Grinnell Elementary School. Grinnell is doing monthly community meetings, and so far this year, the Student Council has been planning visitors, which have included Derry Police with their therapy dog, Fire Fighters talking about fire safety, and the Post Master who talked about delivering mail in Derry. They unveiled the new Grinnell student stamp during that same meeting. Grinnell has had assemblies including NED, Corey the Dribbler, Xploration STEM, and the Karen Allard author visit, who was delayed because of the snow day. Grinnell has many clubs going on with many new ones this year, including 9-Square in the Air, Creative Writing, Little Thinkers Chess Club, Aviation, and STEM Building Club. She is proud of the staff and students for the improvements in academics. Her Math and Reading Specialists collaborate closely with the classroom teachers with data organization, they push-in, and they take groups. Lastly, she shared about the small but mighty PTA at Grinnell who make all the fun activities happen.

-Principal David Brown updated about Ernest P. Barka Elementary School. They are a great team, they have a lot of fun, and they have done many of the same things that all the other schools have talked about. Trimester Two has captured what they are aiming for: meaningful growth, strong relationships in a school environment where students want to be at school every day. They saw encouraging academic progress in both math and reading. Also important for the students, the PTA has put on events including the Frost Festival and Read Across America with guest readers. Every day, classroom moments make learning feel exciting and purposeful. They call it Barka Nation because of the way the students and staff continue to move forward together through every challenge, maintaining a positive attitude where learning, kindness, and belonging remain at the center of every day at Barka Elementary School.

-Principal Bill Fox updated about West Running Brook Intermediate School. This is their second year as an Intermediate School. It is a great community working with the staff and PTSA. They are looking to build confidence among their student body and strive to offer things to kids to make this happen. Mr. Mitch Edwards helped them organize a Field Trip to Camp Carpenter to work on team-building activities for 5th-grade students on the third day of school, and the UNH Browne Center came to them for the 6th grade on that same day. They had a Think Fast Assembly to talk to students about bullying. They have had Willy Wonka Jr., the musical, for students to perform, and their advanced band performed at the State House for the executive council and the governor in celebration of Music in the Schools Month. They have offered over 30 clubs, the PTA has offered the Monster Mile, the Back-to-School Bash, Cookies and Cocoa, and the Mural that their school is working on. They had their annual Veterans breakfast, which grew this year to 300 in attendance. They learned a lot after the first year and made some adjustments to the curriculum for this year, including a new language arts curriculum for 5th and 6th grade that is going well, and they added a writing block. They are a partner with SNHU for student teachers, and have four student teachers currently and four set up for next year. SNHU is teaching a Special Education Class in their building, and the students in that class have their field experience during the school day. One of the best things is having all the 5th and 6th-grade teachers in the same building, collaborating.

-Principal Lisa Long updated about Gilbert H. Hood Middle School. They have had a year-long focus, having a positive, strong community by making connections and working together. Their saying is Be Husky Strong: Work Hard/Make Good Choices/Be Kind! Husky is their mascot. This also ties into the CARES framework. They did a One School-One Book Project, which will end with the author visiting GHH in April. The author will talk about the process of writing a book. The book they are all reading has good themes, including kindness, empathy, responsibility, and resilience, and this gives everyone in the building something common to talk about. The Student Council leads events including door decorating, school-wide pink out day, and Halloween Costume Contest. The National Junior Honor Society runs the Friday Morning Show, babysat at the Deliberative Session, and did Holiday Cards for Troops in December, and they do activities with the DEEP kids. They have over 25 clubs and activities which have multiple sessions, and 20 interscholastic sports teams after school. Some of the newer clubs this year are animation, improv, and wellness clubs. The Derry Rotary Club partners with them to identify students each month, they invite them to a luncheon, and then they pick students of the year. Inside their building, every month, the teachers nominate the Husky Top Ten. The students who are picked are those who are showing the characteristics of being "Husky Strong". They had a 7th-grade winner in the Annual Spelling Bee who won the regionals, and he is on his way to the State Spelling Bee. A 7th-grade student won an honorable mention in the PTSA Reflections Program for film production.

-Chairman Thiele asked all the principals about Mitch Edwards, the CARES program, and how all the schools work together with him.

-Principal Melissa Lantz explained that Mitch Edwards supports all of them with the CARES by meeting with teachers upon request, coming to grade level team meetings, and is willing to help the teachers if they are looking for new things to do in their Morning Meetings or if they are looking for advice about the Fly Five Curriculum.

-Principal Michelle Cremone added that he comes to the schools and goes into Morning Meetings, watching and observing, or jumping in and participating and seeing what he can add to them.

-Delegations & Individuals:

-Richard Tripp: (44 Windham Road). He has seen the monstrous mural when you walk into East Derry Elementary School, and with the kids being so excited about the mural at WRBIS, is this a goal he has asked to eventually have one in each of the schools?

-Superintendent Michael Flynn explained that this came through the Artist and Resident Program and came from the PTSA from one of the teachers.

-Richard Tripp enjoys when students come to the State House because it gives them a little history! He likes the principal talks because it gives us insight into what the schools are doing not only to teach the kids academically, but also how to improve their social skills.

-Jason MacLeod (6 Gaita Drive). He agreed with Richard Tripp that it is always nice to hear what is going on in the schools from the principals. He congratulated Michael Thiele and David Clapp on their reelection. He thanked the community for coming out and voting and caring about our students and schools. He thanked the School Board for the vote of confidence in him as the new Treasurer for the School Board.

-Chairman Thiele read a correspondence from Town Councilor and State Representative Charlie Foote regarding HB 1331. (Representative Mills and he were listed as not voting and excused on this bill due to the House ethics guidance and direction from the House clerk regarding the fact that we are current sitting town councilors, and the amendment gives the town council control over et cetera? They formally recuse themselves and file a conflict of interest based on the potential real or perceived conflict involved at the joint workshop. At the joint workshop, they publicly stated their position, and that has not changed. He continues to stand on the premise that this matter should reflect the will of the people and the voters of our community shall ultimately make the final determination.

-Chairman Thiele stated that the public comment area will stay open until 8:03 p.m.

- Student Member Updates:

-Pinkerton Academy:

-Anthony Henry updated that the Pinkerton Basketball team is State Champs and won over Trinity. The Cheerleading Team won Regionals (New Hampshire and New England). Two students from Derry competed in the Adidas National Track Competition. These are teams of four, and two of the four teams were from Derry. They got 2nd place nationally. The culinary arts teacher at PA won the Pro Start Teacher of the Year for New Hampshire. Pro Start is an advocate for restaurant education in schools. -Anthony Henry added that the Dance Team got 3rd Place at States.

-Next Charter School: N/A

-Mr. Graves was not in attendance tonight.

-Deliberations:

-Security Action for Education (SAFE) Grant:

-Superintendent Michael Flynn updated that the documents in the packet cover the $260,000 is security upgrades that these grants will cover. There are two Grants for each school. He needs a motion from the Board to accept the Safe Grants as presented in their packets. One motion can be taken for all of them.

-Chairman Thiele read each one of the grants. He will accept a motion for the Security Action for Education or SAFE Grants. East Derry Memorial Elementary School: $21,378.32 & $16.000, Ernest P. Barka Elementary School: $25,974.99 & $16,000, Gilbert H. Hood Middle School: $26,510.65 & $16,000, Grinnell Elementary School: $18,393.46 & $16,000, South Range Elementary School: $15,734.82 & $16,000, and West Running Brook Intermediate School: $21,127.75 & $16,000.

-Jenna Paradise asked if taking these Grants locks us into any kind of agreements as far as software? Some of it is for outside security, security cameras, keying, but any type of software update, maintenance plan, or anything like that? Is it one and done, where they come in, install it, and then maintenance and everything is on us?

-Superintendent Michael Flynn explained that we already have a camera system; the only thing we are adding are additional cameras. No other software upgrades or anything along those lines. The regular contractual obligation is under us, but the purchase is new hardware (the cameras).

-Jamie Carreau asked about the rekeying of Hood. Does this include Next Charter School and DEEP, or is that just Hood?

-Superintendent Michael Flynn answered that it was just Hood.

-Jamie Carreau asked if there is any potential that the actual cost of getting this done is going to be higher than what we are getting from the Grants?

-Superintendent Michael Flynn answered no because we had to get all that information before submitting the Grant.

Jennifer Theroux Moved to accept the Security Action for Education or SAFE Grants. East Derry Memorial Elementary School: $21,378.32 & $16.000, Ernest P. Barka Elementary School: $25,974.99 & $16,000, Gilbert H. Hood Middle School: $26,510.65 & $16,000, Grinnell Elementary School: $18,393.46 & $16,000, South Range Elementary School: $15,734.82 & $16,000, and West Running Brook Intermediate School: $21,127.75 & $16,000. - Administration Reports:

-Jane Simard, Business Administrator, updated that the 2024/2025 full audit has been completed. They will bring that to the next Board meeting. They will be finalizing the single audit for the 2024/2025 fiscal year, which includes the extensive audit on the ESSER projects that ended last year, and the IDEA projects, which are the special education federally funded projects. She has prepared the MS22, which is part of the Department of Revenue. This is one of the required reports that she has to complete, which is the actual appropriations that were voted on at the elections. Superintendent Michael Flynn already signed; she just needs the Board to sign it this evening. After the signatures, this will be brought to Tina Guilford because the School District Clerk also has to sign it, and she will submit it to the Department of Revenue.

-Superintendent's Report

-Superintendent Michael Flynn thanked the community for coming out and voting to support our schools. He welcomed back David Clapp as a member of the Board. He thanked Michael Thiele for continuing for another term and thanked Mr. Tripp for running. He updated on the Hood leak that filled with water, and they found more leaks. They replaced 6 more clamps, and they will be getting a true evaluation of all the clamps. The pipes that were installed were not installed for hot water, and hot water runs through the pipes. Hot water expands and contracts more than cold water. The situation has been reported to insurance and Primex, and they are working through it.

-Jenna Paradise asked what kind of damage occurred between DEEP and Next?

-Superintendent Michael Flynn explained Next got the worst of it because they are in the basement. The leak occurred on the third floor. There is significant water damage in some of the offices on the third floor, down into the hallway, down the ramp, and two or three classrooms were impacted in Hood. Servpro have come in and aired it out and cut some walls open to air them out.

-Honeywell Update: 2015/2016, there was a bid that went out regarding controls. There was Johnson and Honeywell, and the Board went into agreement with Honeywell. Then ESSER happened, and one of the things we used ESSER funds for was HVAC. The Board continued the partnership with Honeywell that had already started. They were going to do all the buildings, but they ran out of money, so South Range and Derry Village did not get HVAC completed. Honeywell did all the drawings and specs. So when the Bond was approved, they continued with Honeywell. The attorney said that we did things 99% right, the only thing is that this Board needs to say they approve Honeywell to redo the replacement at South Range. When Jeremy Lamothe came previously, the East Derry Roof was approved, the facade at South Range was approved, and we spoke about Honeywell because we already have a partnership with them. But now we need a motion from the Board to accept Honeywell to complete the work on the HVAC system.

-Jenna Paradise asked if this has to go out to bid again?

-Superintendent Michael Flynn explained that it does not go out to bid again because that was already done. The attorney is saying that the Board just needs to affirm that Honeywell can complete the South Range HVAC Project, the agreement that we entered into several years ago.

-Karen Rand asked if he was able to find the original proposal or estimate for this?

-Superintendent Michael Flynn said that he found the minutes from 2015/2016, July 12, 2016, September 8, 2015, and July 7, 2015.

-Chairman Thiele added August 23, 2023, when Honeywell came in front of us with these specific projects for HVAC, the quote they gave us for South Range did not include the structural, and did not include the boilers, which was $2,747, 335. When you put everything together, we are coming out ahead.

-David Clapp summarized that we are getting the two boilers, and the pricing is lower than we originally got quoted, which is good.

-Chairman Thiele accepts a motion to affirm the contract with Honeywell for the South Range HVAC replacement project.

Jamie Carreau Moved to affirm the contract with Honeywell for the South Range HVAC replacement project. David Clapp seconded the Motion.
Roll Call Vote: David Clapp-Yes Jamie Carreau-Yes Jenna Paradise-Yes Jennifer Theroux-Yes Karen Rand-Yes Chair Michael Thiele-Yes Vote: Unanimous (6/0)

-Committee Reports:

-Policy Review Committee

-Superintendent Michael Flynn explained that we are in the process of developing a manual for employees. This one is for accidents that might lead to insurance liability claim. This should be the Superintendent or designee. Most of the reports now have been going to HR. The second part, the initial report should state fully the possibility for the cause of death. They want to tone that down from death to serious injury.
