Approval of Meeting Minutes

- May meeting minutes approved with no edits, Chloe motioning to approve meeting meetings, seconded by Kevin G. and approved by rest of council.

Feedback from the Community

- Jayden presented summary of feedback he has received, namely around safety and monitoring on the Northern Strand bike path that runs through Malden. Jayden shared that residents near the Linden Square section have stated they have had an ‘uninviting’ experience on the bike path, Jayden also shared his personal experience with a group of teenagers that threatened him while out with his family.

- Council coming up with the following questions and research points to send to MPD and to take on as a council:
 - Who/what entity monitors the bike path? What role does the MPD play in monitoring the bike path?
 - What are other communities doing on their sections of the bike path to monitor and ensure safety?
 - How/in what ways are the MPD keeping and helping to keep community spaces safe?
 - What resources are available to parents of teenagers in Malden? Are there department based trainings available to the handling/support of minors in the city?
 - What are the regulations in the state/city around e-bike usage? Are there trainings available in Malden for e-bike safety and appropriate usage?
- Brittany to compile and send to Lieutenant Powell to hopefully be able to review in next month's meeting.
