2.1 Consideration and action to not move forward with activation of an emergency remote option, but continue to monitor attendance daily.

For the consideration and action to not move forward with activation of an emergency remote option, but continue to monitor attendance daily. If absences rise to 20% overall, it will trigger an emergency meeting of the Board. This monitoring will start February 2, 2026. The Board will continue to expect the district to prepare for future emergency learning and proceed to redistribute resources to provide tutoring and supports for students who have experienced learning loss.
