Meeting called to order at 6:30 p.m.

Roll Call PAC: Jim Bostick (Chair), Bryan Apito, Gwendolyn Rosemond, Brittany Minton, Hannah Gathman

Arriving Late: Becky Fisher (6:40 p.m.)

Also Present: Staff: Julie Barry (Senior Planner Arts & Culture).

- Meeting Minutes Approval – May 19, 2026, Meeting Minutes

Minutes have been tabled until the August meeting.

- FY2027 Preliminary Budget Planning Continued

400+ Sculpture

- Quotes for the installation came in under $10000.
- Ms. Minton volunteers to registrar the installation.

Hell's Mural

- $5000 for fabrication and installation of signage, approximately 6'x9'

This item is tabled, briefly, to discuss the next agenda item.

Ms. Barry will break out the conservation estimates for the Hells Gibson mural, mural slam objects, and the Rousseau gift.

A motion to approve the budget as proposed is made by Jim Bostick, seconded by Brittany Minton, and passed unanimously.

- Rousseau Gift of Art Update

Ms. Minton feels that only 2 of the items belong in the city's public art collection. Would like to accept the rest of the materials as supporting documentation context of the artwork.

- Mr. Bostick offers to help with the installation hardware for the two paintings.
- Ms. Minton offers to transport the items to the high school.

A motion to accept the donation from the Rousseau Family Trust that the two larger paintings will be placed in the city's art collections, supporting materials will be archived for research, and the Public Art Commission will submit the proposal to City Council for approval is made by Jim Bostick, seconded by Hannah Gantham, and passes unanimously.

Mr. Bostick offers to help "shore up" the paintings once they are accepted into the public art collection and ensure the supporting materials and are in archival sleeves.

- Adjourn

Motion to adjourn is made by Gwendolyn Rosemund and passes unanimously.

Adjourn – The meeting adjourned at 8:37 pm
