Violation Hearings

16. 4th&1 LLC, 7 Muskeego Street
Violation of Rules #14, #18, 204 CMR 4.03 (2)

Robert Ginisi appeared to answer to the violation and waived his right to counsel.

Sgt. Needham presented the following:

On July 31, 2026, members of the Alcohol Enforcement Team visited the Licensed Premises to carry out a compliance check following a social media post regarding a "Happy Hour" violation. Upon entering, the team observed that the door was unlocked and there were no staff members checking IDs, suggesting that the establishment was open to the public. The team engaged with the bartender, who subsequently contacted the owner, Robert Ginisi, to come to the premises. While waiting for him to arrive, the team asked the bartender about the club's membership and guest documentation. She directed them to a screen on the cash register, where she displayed a list of names and explained that she manages a "tab" with the names of customers who are members. Upon further questioning about guest documentation, she indicated that the system does not record guest names. When asked about the advertised Happy Hour special, she clarified that members pay a regular, lower price, while non-members are charged the original price.

Mr. Ginisi eventually arrived at the licensed premises and was informed about the identified violations.

Mr. Ginisi stated that he has been at location for nine years and of the time they are a members club and the members are allowed to have guests. He stated in nine years there have been no violations except one minor problem during COVID. He stated that moving forward they will raise money to put in a buzzer. He stated they will have a member book for people to sign in. Mr. Ginisi stated that when he found out about the Happy Hour posting it was immediately removed. He stated that he has seen other clubs do that type of posting so they thought it was okay.

Mr. Ginisi stated that they stopped doing the member book sign in as they were using the POS sale system. Chair Vigliotti stated that system isn't working.

Commissioner Fisher stated that she recalled the violation from 2021 and the Commission had reviewed with Mr. Ginisi the club requirements.

Chair Vigliotti recommend that Mr. Ginisi sit down with the police and Inspectional Services and review the club requirements.

Upon a roll call vote the Commission voted 3-0 that the violation did occur.

Upon a roll call vote the Commission voted 3-0 to issue a five-day suspension with two days served, October 15, 26, 2026.

List of Exhibits: Police report dated August 24, 2026
